Parents Comments

- I don't need regular wraparound care but do need homework club once or twice a week. A free breakfast session once or twice a week could be very useful, but it wouldn't necessarily be the same day as breakfast club.
- Think it's a fantastic idea and would benefit some parents, but not for me personally
- I occasionally need wraparound care in the afternoon, but it would be very unusual for me to need it in the morning.
- At the moment I don't require wrap around care but this is likely to change in September when I will need it
- XXXX isn't sure if he would attend regularly but would like to give it a try so I ticked Mon -Thurs.
- We require breakfast club occasionally depending on my work situation usually once a week or once a fortnight for XXXX and XXXX
- Would be interested in the free club only
